LONG TERM CARE COMMUNITY COALITION

Advancing Quality, Dignity & Justice

COMING TOGETHER TO CREATE CHANGE: A SYMPOSIUM FOR THE NURSING HOME COMMUNITY

The symposium will feature speakers discussing relevant perspectives on nursing home care, quality of life, and dignity. Following the speakers, there will be a panel discussion in which the speakers will be joined by Claudette Royal, the NY State Long Term Care Ombudsman and Deborah Truhowsky, Elder Neglect Attorney. All members of the nursing home community are welcome to attend.

Speakers:

Dr. Jonathan Evans

Vice President, The Consumer Voice

Lindsay Heckler

Supervising Attorney, Center for Elder Law & Justice

Richard Mollot

Executive Director, Long Term Care Community Coalition

When: June 17, 2019, 9:30 am – 2 pm

Where: Terence Cardinal Cooke Nursing Home
1249 Fifth Avenue (105th Street), NYC.

How: All are welcome, but registration is necessary. Please contact Sara Rosenberg at 212-385-0355 or sara@ltccc.org by June 1, 2019 to register.

For Nursing Home Residents, Families, Ombudsmen, & Advocates:

Thanks to the generous support of the New York State Health Foundation, we are able to provide limited scholarships for residents, families, ombudsmen, and non-profit representatives. Because these spaces are limited, we ask that you please commit to attending the program before you register, so that we can accommodate everyone who is interested.

Thank you to ArchCare at Terence Cardinal Cooke Health Care Center for hosting us this year!
