Free Lunch & Learn Educational Programs: Quality, Dignity, and Resident-Centered Advocacy

When Are The Programs? The third Tuesday of the month at 1pm Eastern.

March 17: Fostering Resident Independence and Choice in Assisted Living

Assisted living promises to provide residential care in a setting that is more home-like and less restrictive than a traditional nursing home. This program will discuss resources and tools to help make that promise a reality.

April 21: Meaningful Safeguards: Promising Practices & Recommendations for Evaluating Nursing Home Owners

Concerns are growing that licenses to own and operate nursing homes are being awarded to individuals and companies that are not willing – or able – to fulfill their commitments to residents, families, and the public. This program presents highlights from our new study on what the government can do to better ensure that nursing home owners put care over profits.

May 19: Understanding and Advocating for Residents with Dementia

June 16: Identifying and Addressing Nursing Home Abuse & Neglect
